

Taking Gathered Worship Home

The Twenty-Fifth Week of Pentecost – Sunday, November 3, 2024

“Taking Gathered Worship Home” (TGWH) has been developed for you to use in the private worship of your home, whether you are married or single, and whether or not you have children. It is a tool to knit us together throughout the church year. While we would encourage the use of TGWH in its entirety, you are encouraged to adapt the offerings to your particular circumstances. The prayer is taken from “Lutheran Worship” and the psalm readings are taken from the “Book of Common Prayer” and the daily readings are from “The Book of Common Worship.”

Lord Jesus Christ, our great High Priest, cleanse us by the power of your redeeming blood, that in purity and peace we may worship and adore your holy name; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Q. 122. What is the first petition?

A. Hallowed be thy Name. That is: Grant us first of all that we may rightly know thee,[1] and sanctify, glorify, and praise thee in all thy works, in which shine forth thy almighty power, wisdom, goodness, righteousness, mercy, and truth.[2] Grant us also that we may so direct our whole life— our thoughts, words, and actions—that thy Name is not blasphemed because of us but always honored and praised.[3]

Q. 123. What is the second petition?

A. Thy kingdom come. That is: So rule us by thy Word and Spirit that more and more we submit to thee.[1] Preserve and increase thy church.[2] Destroy the works of the devil, every power that raises itself against thee, and every conspiracy against thy holy Word.[3] Do all this until the fullness of thy kingdom comes, wherein thou shalt be all in all.[4]
