

Taking Gathered Worship Home

The Last Week of Pentecost – Sunday, November 24, 2024

“Taking Gathered Worship Home” (TGWH) has been developed for you to use in the private worship of your home, whether you are married or single, and whether or not you have children. It is a tool to knit us together throughout the church year. While we would encourage the use of TGWH in its entirety, you are encouraged to adapt the offerings to your particular circumstances. The prayer is taken from “Lutheran Worship” and the psalm readings are taken from the “Book of Common Prayer” and the daily readings are from “The Book of Common Worship.”

Lord Jesus Christ, so govern our hearts and minds by your Holy Spirit that, ever mindful of your glorious return, we may persevere in both faith and holiness of living; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Q. 128. How do you conclude your prayer?

A. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. That is: All this we ask of thee because, as our King, having power over all things, thou art both willing and able to give us all that is good,[1] and because not we but thy holy Name should so receive all glory for ever.[2]

Q. 129. What does the word Amen mean?

A. Amen means: It is true and certain. For God has much more certainly heard my prayer than I feel in my heart that I desire this of Him.[1]
